

Our Neighbors
At least The Kernel is being read. In the March "Trail Blazer," mention is made of this column's first appearance and our uneasiness concerning public approval of the different head schedule. A confidential "aside" informs us that it's nothing to brag about, which we slightly suspected. Anyway, it's a departure from the bold face Gothic style formerly used. Here's another offer off-hand "aside." Check on the spelling of "Kernel" and the names of the former and present editors.

On The Other Hand
Mrs. Helen Zagat, New York, interior decorator and lecturer, who spoke at the recent women's convocation said that this was the most professional-looking college paper she had seen in all her travels. Her observation was from the layman's standpoint. But the above was the journalist's voice.

Athletic Degrees?
A suggestion has been made that the paper run an editorial advocating the granting of bachelor degrees to football players and those participating in other sports. By this means, certain subjects required now could be eliminated. The editorial board hasn't had time to really check up on the plan, but a few questions are apparent at once. Do enough athletes intend entering the coaching field to justify such a plan? Isn't the physical education department working toward that goal? Would the proposed degrees fulfill present requirements for a high school coaching position?

Lest We Forget
A lone light used to burn atop Memorial hall. It was placed there, as was the building itself, to honor Kentucky's war dead. Came hard times and the light was put out for lack of funds. Allenby Winer writes a note suggesting that it be reinstalled. Says he: "Just as a sort of reminder of what has gone before."

Campus Politics
The YWCA election yesterday served as a fair example of how campus voting may be kept immune from the germs of factionalism and favoritism. It was indeed a relief to note the conspicuous absence of hand-bills and vote-solicitors. Campus politics can and must be rid of those handicaps which have anchored it in the muck of failure. "The Student Union constitution is an honest stroke in the right direction; let's carry it through."—Again from Mr. Winer

The Independent's Voice
"What about the independents in this 'campus-wide' survey conducted by the constitutional committee in regard to the centralized orchestra booking plans?" asks W. M. "Were they allowed to express their opinions?" We kind of expected this. Every major organization, composed of independents and otherwise, was contacted. In addition, at least three front page stories and an editorial were run in the Kernel, asking that students voice their opinions regarding the plan.

More About Noises
Another of life's trials is this bus iness of radiator noises: "Having just sat through one hour's torture...with the steam radiator clanking, knocking, and banging like a riveting machine, I am ready to denounce the central heating plant as an inquisition device for the demoralization of students. Wherever you go one must endure the auditory assaults of these fiendish inventions. If somebody doesn't fix the things, I'm going to turn a couple up by the roots."—D. I. V. The heating plant is comparatively new as yet. Give them time to make minor adjustments of defects evidenced after short trial before you exert your Samsonian tactics.

Love Protection
Hyde Park, London, protects its romancers. A "peeping tom," arrested after spying on two couples who were embracing, was fined $10 for "willfully interfering with the comfort and convenience of persons using Hyde Park." Heed ye, scandal columnists.

If You're Squeamish
E. Kim, whoever that is, writes this graphic word picture: "If we live to be a hundred and one, we shall never forget the sign we saw out at the Fair Grounds track the other day. Being of a very curious nature, we followed several police cars and a S. P. C. A. truck out to one of the barns where they keep race horses. Five minutes later we wished we hadn't."

Let It Be Quick
"One of the horses had contracted that disease known as rabies and was literally biting itself to death. The poor devil was tearing great hunks of raw flesh out of its chest and legs. Because the head had to be cut off and sent to the 'lab' for testing, the cop had to shoot the creature in the side. The poor thing took a long time to die and screamed like a human for several minutes. When our time comes, I hope it's fast and clean." And so we we!

Scrambled Notes
Five pages of advertising today...read the constitution for the Student Union building carefully...will probably come up for discussion many times next semester...check on the no-smoking editorial and see what you think...that name, George Lamason, at top of reporters on mass head means something...good Kernel reporters work hard...besides that, there is On The Lam...Ravelings gives you something to think about...Who's Who-y combats the efforts of several "snoopers"...and now to press at 10 o'clock.

Sea-Going Wildcats Will Defend Halo In Eastern State's Tank Tomorrow; Swim Teams Gather For State Meet

Blues Enter Richmond Meet As Favorites To Win Kentucky Crown

FINALS ARE SLATED FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

Five Swimmers To Be Allowed In Last Contest Of Each Event

The most successful season in its brief history will be climaxed by the Wildcats' much publicized "dry-land" swimming team when its state water crown is at stake Saturday afternoon and night at the Eastern Teachers College pool, Richmond.

Sponsored by the KICAC the swimming spectacle was first offered in 1936, the title going to the 'Cats although they were not members of the conference. Last year Kentucky successfully defended their diadem by edging out Eastern by two points. Due to the ease in which they have defeated two of the entering schools, the 'Cats are heavy favorites to repeat their defense.

Although invitations were issued to all KICAC colleges, Berea, Eastern and possibly Morehead and the University of Louisville, other than the University, appeared to be the only teams that will face the barrier.

Preliminary heats will be run Saturday afternoon starting at 1 o'clock, with the finals slated for 8 p. m. Only five men will be allowed in the finals of each event.

In their starts against intra-state competition, the Blues downed Eastern by 47-18 and washed over Berea by 46-20. Kentucky should sweep the dashes, the relays, backstroke and breast stroke the only vulnerable spots being in the fancy diving and distance swim.

Morehead, with its doubtful participant, Morris, and Eastern's Dickman, with Curtis and Sharps, will battle it out for proffered points.

The 220-yard free style will feature Kentucky's Eddie David and Begley of Berea. In the meet with Berea last week-end, David was second to the Mountaineer one man team who established a new pool record in the event when he was checked in 2:52.7. David's best effort during the regular season has been 2:55.

Scott and Hillenmeyer should care for the backstroke. Scott, whose trip in the 150-yard backstroke lowered the accepted state time to 1:59.9, should have little trouble unless the University of Louisville sends their entry who is reputed to have covered the distance in 1:55. Hinklebein is easily the class of the breaststrokers and the undefeated 300-yard medley relay team should breeze.

Members of the team who include are Ramsey, Triplett, Hillenmeyer, Scott, Hinklebein, Roberts, Reid, David, Oettinger, Huber, Morat, Sharpe, Curtis, and Spears. Manager Felix Murray and Frank "Skipper" Mann, trainer, will accompany the team.

Summer Session To Offer Vocational Education Course

Courses in a new phase of vocational education, "Distributive Occupations Education" will be offered this summer for the first time at the University Summer Session, according to an announcement from the office of Dr. Jesse E. Adams, director of the session.

The courses are new phases of vocational training under which training may be given to those engaged in any occupation dealing with the distribution of merchandise, including retail selling and store management.

Studies will be under the direction of W. Maurice Baker, assistant supervisor and teacher trainer of distributive occupations for the state of Kentucky. This department, recently organized in the College of Education, is the only one of its kind in the state.

SPRING BASKETBALL ENDS
Spring basketball drills ended last Friday afternoon in the Alumni gym following a fast practice scrimmage. The drills were intended to bring out reserves from the freshman squad who would be able to fill the shoes of "Smoky" Joe Haggan and J. Rice Walker, last season's captain, who will be lost to the squad through graduation. Spring practice sessions began immediately after the close of the regular season four weeks ago.

Practically All Departments In Ag College Will Offer Work During Two Summer Terms

To take care of the rapidly increasing enrollment in the College of Agriculture, courses will be offered this summer in practically all departments.

Undergraduates who wish to shorten the time required for graduation will find the course offerings in agricultural entomology, agronomy and animal industry especially suited to their needs.

Elementary and advanced agricultural entomology, a diverse group of crops, market classes and breeds of livestock, genetics, sheep production, and horse production will be offered daily during the first term, while animal nutrition, pork production will be offered daily during the second term.

Graduate students will be interested in the unit two and one-half weeks courses taught both terms. These courses include dairy cattle feeding and management, special problems in agricultural engineering, landscape gardening, land problems, rural life, agricultural prices, and current problems in agricultural economics, all taught the first term. Unit courses taught the second term are advanced livestock judging and dairy bacteriology.

The home management house, located at 162 Bonnie Brae, will be operated both terms. Courses in foods, elementary nutrition, housing, clothing and textiles, advanced costume design, interior decoration, and dietetics complete the offering for the first term.

YUELL SPEAKS ON PASSION PLAY

Lecturer Illustrates History Of Performance In First Of Pre-Easter Services

Recounting the history of the Oberammergau Passion play, Dr. Herbert Yuell, Louisville, gave an illustrated lecture on the noted drama as the first in a series of Pre-Easter services sponsored by the YMCA and YWCA yesterday afternoon in Memorial hall.

The play originated, according to Dr. Yuell, in Bavaria, Germany, as an expression of gratitude for the cessation of a Black Death scourge. The performance has continued since 1634, with the exception of a short time when the France-Prussian War interfered.

"More than 700 characters participate in the annual presentation, which includes an orchestra of 50 members and a chorus of 46. It is estimated that more than 300,000 people witness the production each season," Dr. Yuell stated.

Consisting of 18 acts and a number of tableaux, the play lasts for eight hours, with a short intermission at noon. It concerns the events of Christ's last days on earth.

The chief characters are the Christ, the Twelve Disciples, Mary the mother of Jesus, Mary Magdalene, and Martha. No wigs or facial make-up is permitted, although the actors wear biblical costumes.

The second discussion in the pre-Easter services will be conducted by Miss Aileen Anderson, director of young people's work at the Maxwell Street Presbyterian church at 4 p. m. today in Memorial hall. Her subject will be "In Quest of Life."

Two French Plays To Be Presented At University High
"Soiree Dramatique," a program consisting of two French plays will be presented by the University Circle Francaise and the Lexington Alliance Francaise at 8 o'clock Monday evening, April 11 in the University High school auditorium.

The scene of the first play, "L'Anglais Tel Qu'on Parle" (English as It is Spoken) by Tristan Bernard, is laid in a hotel in Paris, where Julien Candel has eloped with Betty Hogson. The angry English father pursues the couple, but meets with linguistic difficulties that are only complicated by an interpreter who speaks only one language.

The scene of the second play, "La Surprise d'Isidore" by Francisco Javier Yanes takes place in the study of Doctor Picard, a nerve specialist, whose former college friend, Isidore pays him a surprise visit and is mistaken by the members of the doctor's household for a patient with an unsound mind.

RADER TAKES MOREHEAD JOB
Clifford Rader, Richmond, graduate assistant in the political science department, has accepted a position as an instructor in political science and history at Morehead State Teachers College. He assumed his duties at Morehead Monday, April 4, it was announced yesterday.

KY. HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE TOURNEY STARTS AT 2 P. M.

Twenty-two District Contest Winners To Appear In 15th Annual Session

OPENING DEBATES TO BE IN McVEY HALL
Program Features Reception, Banquet, Theatre Party, And Trophy Awards

Twenty-two high school debating teams and many individual debaters from all parts of the state will take part in the 15th annual tournament of the Kentucky High School Forensic League on the campus beginning today and lasting through Monday, April 11. The program is under the general direction of the Extension department.

Trophies will be awarded to winners selected from competition in debating, oratorical declamation, humorous reading, poetry reading, extemporaneous speaking, and special junior and senior high school contests.

Participants in these contests will be individuals and teams who won first honors in the district contests held two weeks ago at Murray, Henderson, Hopkinsville, Shepherdsville, Bowling Green, Louisville, Carrollton, Pleasureville, Lebanon, Somerset, Ludlow, Lexington, Midway, Richmond, Pineville, Maysville, Hazard, Ashland, and Paintsville.

The program will open at 2 p. m. this afternoon with a preliminary series of debates by the competing high school groups. Judges at this session will be the coaches of the teams participating.

Following a reception given by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. for the visitors at Patt hall, the speakers, their coaches, and chaperones will be guests of one of the local theaters for a picture show.

One of the features of the four-day program will be a debate between the Columbia Junior College and Paducah Junior College to be held Saturday at 10:30 a. m. Saturday evening the Annual High School Speakers' Dinner in the Commons is scheduled. Music will be furnished by the University radio staff orchestra under Elmer G. Sulzer's direction, the women's glee club under the direction of Mildred S. Lewis, and the men's glee club directed by Harlowe F. Deane Jr. Awards will be presented to the winners of the individual.

SUKY RELEASES MAY DAY PLANS

Tentative Arrangements For Annual Celebration, Slated May 6, Are Complete

Tentative plans for the annual May Day celebration to be held Friday, May 6, were announced yesterday by the Suky circle, sponsor of the affair.

An effort will be made this year to have a greater number of floats and a more elaborate and larger parade. All campus organizations are urged to enter floats in the competition.

Committee members are as follows: program, Mary Lou McFarland, chairman, Jane Potter, Herman Dotson and Curtis Baumgardner; coronation ceremonies, Martha Hawkins, chairman, and Evelyn Ewan; floats, James Salter, chairman, Elliot Beard, Betty Elliot, and Jimmy Kelland; dance, Robert Tabling, chairman, John Clinkenbeard, and Don Buchanan, and publicity, Granville Coblin and Alice Wood Bailey.

Peace Month Plans Are Formulated By Student Committee

Peace Month plans that will include an anti-war strike, panel discussion, a special program, and a library exhibit were formulated at a meeting of the United Student peace committee Thursday afternoon in the Woman's building.

The anti-war strike, an annual affair, will be held on April 27. A speaker for the event has not yet been selected.

On April 24 the group will sponsor a program under the leadership of the Rev. Olaf Anderson, Lebanon. A panel discussion on "Collective Security or Neutrality" is also planned. Four students and two faculty members, yet to be chosen, will take part in the discussion.

During the latter part of the Month an anti-war poster exhibit will be shown in the Library. Students desiring to enter peace posters in the exhibit are asked to turn them in to Harriet Henderson, chairman of the peace committee, before April 20.

LEXINGTON CLUB WILL HEAR SPRY

University Botanic Garden Committee And Lexington Garden Club Sponsor Lecture

"Modern Flower Decorations" will be discussed by Mrs. Constance Spry, noted English specialist in floral decoration, as a feature of the annual Garden Day program, at 2 p. m. Saturday, April 9, in Memorial hall.

The all-day meeting is under the auspices of the University's botanic garden committee and the Lexington Garden Club.

Mrs. Spry, who has been responsible for all the flower decorations at Fort Belvedere for the Duke of Windsor, when he was Prince of Wales and King Edward VIII, is internationally famous for her flower arrangements.

She was summoned to Cande to take charge of all decorations for the Duke's wedding, and for the last three years has supervised flower decorations for the Duke and Duchess of Kent.

She has also had charge of the decorations for many important London weddings during the last few years, including the Dukes of Gloucester, Norfolk, and Devon, and the wedding of Lord Derby's granddaughter.

Mrs. Spry has her own school of floristry and also lectures at Swanley Horticultural College.

Members of the Lexington Garden Club will act as hostesses at the opening of the program at 11 a. m. Saturday in the botanic gardens. Approximately 125 guests will be served at a buffet luncheon in the recreation room of Patterson hall at 1 p. m.

President and Mrs. Frank L. McVey will entertain at Maxwell Place after the lecture with a tea in honor of Mrs. Spry.

Those on the Garden Day committee are Prof. N. R. Elliot, chairman, Mrs. Frank L. McVey, Miss Mary L. Diddle, Dr. W. D. Valleau, Mrs. M. J. Crutcher, Mrs. Spencer Brooker, Mrs. Edward Clark, Mrs. J. F. Van Doren, Mrs. Sterling Coke, and Mrs. Joseph Wanless.

The public is cordially invited to attend Mrs. Spry's lecture.

Leslie Lee Jones Elected President Of Theta Sigma Phi

Election of officers of Chi chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalism fraternity for women, was held Tuesday, April 5, in the Woman's building.

The following officers were elected for the year 1938-39: Leslie Lee Jones, president for the second year; Ruth Jean Lewis, vice-president; Mrs. Walker Christian, secretary; Marjorie Reiser, treasurer; and Martha Moore, matrix editor; Miss Juliet Galloway, society editor of the Lexington Herald, was chosen alumni advisor.

Plans were made for a picnic supper on Tuesday afternoon, April 26, at which time Miss Marjorie Hoagland, publicity director for the College of Agriculture, will be the guest speaker.

A delegate to attend the national Theta Sigma Phi convention to be held August 16 to 20 in Los Angeles, Cal., will be elected at the next meeting.

"Stage Door" Cast Includes 21 Women

Many Veteran 'Little Theatre' Players Have Roles In Current Production

Twenty-one women will be included in the cast of 32 that will present the Edna Ferber-George S. Kaufman success, "Stage Door," at the Guignol theatre during the week of April 25.

The cast that will present the play is composed of veteran Guignol actors, including Barbara Smith, Louise Nisbet, J. B. Faulconer, and C. R. Lisansky.

Barbara Smith, who will play the part of Jean Maitland, appeared in "A Murder Has Been Arranged," "Under the Gas Lights," and "The Distract Side." She is an alumna of the University and is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

A freshman and a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority, Louise Nisbet has played in several laboratory plays and in "The Tempest." She is cast as Kay Hamilton in "Stage Door."

J. R. Faulconer, who will portray Dr. Randall, is a seasoned Guignol artist having played in "Refund," "The Spider," and "Idiot's Delight." He is a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Portraying the role of Billy, the photographer, will be C. R. Lisansky who has appeared in "The Tempest," "The Spider," and "Idiot's Delight."

Another Useful Honorary

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE KERNEL's plan of segregating the useless from the useful honorary fraternities on the campus, it is apropos to consider the effectiveness of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary. Year after year this organization, one of the six campus honoraries exclusively for women, has stood among the foremost in its service to University women.

Probably the most important contribution of Mortar Board is its aid in the orientation of freshman women in September. Mortar Board also encourages scholarship among freshmen by awarding cups to first year women who achieve perfect standings.

Another service rendered the students by the organization is a program of study hours for dormitory women.

Membership in the honorary is limited to 20 women, with qualifications including high scholarship, outstanding leadership in other campus organizations, and service to the University.

Mortar Board was founded at Swarthmore college in 1918 and now has chapters in 60 American colleges. The University chapter was the eleventh to be formed.

No Smoking Allowed

IN ARTICLE 24 of the house rules for the new Student Union building is the following statement:

"Smoking will not be permitted in the ballroom or music room."

At first glance, the regulation pertaining to the ballroom seems petty, as if the constitutional committee were campaigning against tobacco or trying to regulate student morals. But nothing less than cool, level-headed judgment prompted that rule.

When completely installed, the linoleum covering on the dance floor will have cost the students and state approximately $2,000. Cigarettes crushed out on hardwood leave definite burn marks, but on linoleum, especially a bright colorful design, they leave blotches which remain almost as long as the floor.

Since the building and furnishings are not mere temporary affairs meant to please for the moment but are of enduring quality — if given half a chance — it is only reasonable that the committee should take a few precautions.

Not real infringement on personal liberty can be read into the rule because those dancers who want to smoke will have access to the outside promenade, just off the ballroom, and all other parts of the building except the music room.

Whatever is student opinion concerning this particular regulation, one fact is evident. There is a definite need for each individual to understand the complete constitution and set of house rules. Undoubtedly, it will be necessary to make a few changes and corrections after the building is in operation but how much better it would be to catch the errors at an early stage.

Starting in this issue, the constitution will be printed in sections until the complete document has been published. Read it carefully and make your comments now, not later.

ON THE LAM

By GEORGE LAMASON

WE HAVE always had a deep and natural (we were going to say "profound," but that's Ekdahl's word) respect for that wonderful little machine, the typewriter. In fact we love typewriters, typewriting, and typewriter keys (except the letter "g" on our machine which is continually popping up in the strangest and most unwanted places). Like the proverbial dog, the typewriter is the columnist's best friend, but unlike the dog it never bites the hand that feeds it.

Deep in every man's heart is the desire to do his bit for science, to ease the load of suffering humanity, and to pave the road for the march of progress. It was only natural then, when we felt this surge of inventive benevolence, that we should pick the subject nearest our heart, the typewriter. After years of careful research and agonizing labor, we are proud to announce our complete line of new Futurized Typsters (pat. app. for).

All models are to come in six delicious colors: Nile green, robin's egg blue, canary yellow, orange, lemon, and lime.

Model 1-A is the newspaper writer's model. A tap on one of the keys instead of printing merely one letter brings forth one of the reporter's favorite phrases like: custodian (also minion, arm, clutches) of the law, charming personality, bolt from a clear sky, checkered career, blushing bride, death car, psychological moment, staid professor, and breakneck speed. The addition of these "phrase" keys cuts typing time in half.

Our sports model, 1-B, contains keys with such favorites as: rounded into shape; dry-land mermen; moleskin warriors; record-shattering performance; line-bucking fullback; grid technicians; and battling for varsity berths.

A special machine for Time magazine with chubby, spunky, round-faced, bumbling, newshawk, tycoon, and famed, is under construction.

Another, 2-A, was designed for people who like to drive autos. There are gears so students can shift to faster and faster gears as the time when the term paper is due draws nearer. A brake can be pulled at the end of the paper. This model also sports a trumpet horn to be blown when you want to stop interruptions or when some kibitzer reads over your shoulder.

There is another one called the Feather Touch for people who like to throw things in the heat of anger. This machine weighs only three pounds — light enough for a baby to throw. Think how much more dramatic it will be to hop your roommate in the bean with a typewriter than the usual chair or book.

For the poor speller we offer the Bingo. This typewriter pays off in various amounts up to a dollar for the correct spelling of difficult words. One myriad syllable hits the jackpot if spelt correctly.

A flood of spring poems—well, four anyway—reached us this week. Witness:

Spring behold! fickle love,
Spinster's joy, turtle dove.
Romeo's illusion, Juliet's dream,
Ardent exhaling, amorous stream.
Warning rays, caressing breezes,
Flirting damsels, just big teases.
Verdant carpets, beauty spread,
Rejuvenation of nature's dead.
Trees bud forth, flowers spring up;
Hello Moseley; good-bye Rupp.
Angle worms crawl, fish bite too.
Showers fall freely to make all new.

The Constitution Of The Ky. Student Union

(Ed. Note: Due to the importance of the Student Union constitution, the first part of which is printed below, we suggest that all campus organizations file it for future reference. The remainder of the Constitution will appear in subsequent issues of The Kernel.)

Following is the constitution of the Kentucky student union as approved by the student union committee and submitted to President McVey and the Board of Trustees for final approval:

ARTICLE I: NAME
Section 1. The name of this organization shall be The Kentucky Student Union of the University of Kentucky.

ARTICLE II: OBJECT
Section 1. The object of The Kentucky Student Union of the University of Kentucky, as stated in this, the first Constitution of the Union, is:
To promote the interests of the University of Kentucky and its students.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP
Section 1. Every student in actual residence at the University of Kentucky shall become an active member of the Union upon payment of Union dues, for the period which such dues cover.
Section 2. There shall be four (4) classes of members: student, faculty, alumni, and honorary.
Section 3. Student members.

See Article III, Section 1.
Section 4. Faculty members.

Any member of the Board of Trustees, teaching staff, clerical force, or officer of the University of Kentucky is eligible to membership in the Union.

Section 5. Alumni members.
Any graduate or ex-student of the University of Kentucky shall be eligible to membership in the Union. Alumni members shall consist of two classes: resident and non-resident.

Section 6. Honorary members.
The Board of Directors shall have the power to elect honorary members at its discretion. All members of the Board of Directors who have graduated and who served in the best interests of the Union for a major portion of one school year shall become Honorary Life Members. The Secretary of the Board of Directors shall issue a certificate of life membership and a life membership card to each member of the Board of Directors upon his becoming an Honorary Life Member. Such certificate or card shall entitle the Honorary Life Member, upon presentation, to the privileges of the Union, as specified from time to time by the Board of Directors. No fees, dues, powers, or duties shall be imposed upon any Honorary Life Member.

Section 7. Expulsion.
Any member of any of the classes of members of the Union may be expelled or suspended from membership, either indefinitely or for a specified period, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, but only upon due notice and a public hearing. This Section 7, Article III, shall be subject to Section 1, Article IX.

RAVELINGS

By JOHN ED FEARCE

While wars and rumors of more wars to come shake the foundations of a dozen civilizations in scattered parts of our globe, we, the college students of America, stroll carelessly down the sheltered walks of higher education, far from the gruesome realities of strife. Yet, while we pace with leisurely tread the cloistered walks below the supposedly ivy-covered walls, we are not entirely unconscious of the fact that we, too, may become nice, ripe, healthy cannon fodder for some sadistic munitions-maker.

I decided last week to eke from a comparatively representative group their ideas on this subject of war. Since college people are not only full of ideas, but usually willing to express them quite freely, I had practically no trouble in getting the following answers to the question "Under what conditions would you volunteer for service in the army of the United States?"

Leon McCroskey, '38—"I would not volunteer for any foreign war, no matter what the cause. In fact I would try to avoid enlistment in every possible way. I would, however, volunteer for a defensive war."

Marvin Gay, '38—"Only in case the United States or some of the Central American republics were invaded."

Louis Barker, '39—"I would volunteer if Hawaii, Alaska or any foreign holding of the United States were molested."

J. B. Curry, '40—"I would volunteer for any war if Americans or their possessions were in danger, whether it was a foreign war, or a defensive one."

W. McKinney, '41—"I would volunteer for a foreign war as readily as I would for a defensive war. I would rather go over there and fight than wait for them to come over here."

What these testimonies prove, I will not attempt to say. But on looking at the collection for a second time, you will notice that the Juniors and Seniors seem more inclined to be against war than do the Freshmen and Sophomores, who have less of a pacifist attitude. Perhaps it is the superior education. It may be merely study of the question.

Though fully cognizant of the fact that I am biting the hand by which I hope some day to be fed, I cannot resist the opportunity to bring to light one of the most ludicrous of newspaper tactics: the pitiful attitude which some newspapers take concerning the use of certain words. If you are a follower of the sheets, you will have probably noticed that the angelic editors or copywriters only fool us by a few dashes as d-m, or h-l.

In fact, by assuming this ostrich-like attitude, the copywriter or editor who persists in doctoring such words actually degrades his paper, for it is well known that the suggested word is always more powerful, and usually more vulgar, because of its suggestiveness. This knowledge does not seem to have any effect on the editors, though, and they plod stolidly on, throwing such drivel as "I'll blow your g—"

Who's Who-ey

By DIDI CASTLE

Today's columbine (combine and column—get it?) has been aided and abetted with ideas and what-nots from the pulsating craniums of Bob Hansen, Mary Stuart Pile, and Marion Brook, who took pity on the deadened condition of our brain cells and offered a few suggestions hither and yon, which, we want everyone to know, were greatly appreciated. The curtain rises...

A few of the goofy sayings and their origins are hereby revealed to a waiting world. The Sigma Chi's are always saying "What in the world?" the answer to which is "Alkaseltzer." Sigma Nu is said to have originated the expression "What about that?" SAE's favorite is "Gad, girl, you're costing me money." And when you hear a sweet voice in the distance saying "Hi, hon-ee," you know it's a Kappa.

Some of the more fervid two-somes seen around lately: Natalie Corbin and Junior Class Prexy Bob Strohm... KA Al Hoskins and Catherine Byrd Rozell... Nick Burley and Fritz Jilison... Betsy Covington and a Pi Kap... Walter Hodge and Billie Dyer... and Kib-bee Vogt and Mary Lee Hope.

Here's a brain baby of someones: The "Emmy"ment Emmy Lou Turk certainly has a "Chickie Penn." It certainly de-Penns on E. Lou, 'cause she has what it "Turks!" "Chick'en sure get 'em."

It has been reported that thirteen Sigma Nu pledges turned in their pins during hell week when threatened with a general head-shaving spree. Seven returned to the fold. It took the Sig Ep pledges about three weeks to get back to normal after their scrimmage with the bowl and scissors. There are rumors to the effect that pranks of that particular nature went out with the dark ages. Fun is fun, but...

She was only a painter's daughter, but there's nothing shellacked.

Forbidding clouds hovered over the romance of Jiggs Whittinghill and Marjorie Fieber when Jiggs, while dressing to escort Marjorie to the Tri-Delt swingaree, sat down for a moment, fell fast asleep and snoozed peacefully through the hours supposed to be spent in making merry. We understand that he has at last succeeded in talking to a very incensed Marjorie over the phone.

The mere fact that last Saturday was the coldest day in almost two months didn't phase Sonny Wilson, or Kirklin Kelly. They blithely trotted down to Clifton, donned bathing suits, and took a lengthy dip in the icy waters of the Kentucky river. Eliza and her cakes of ice had nothing on these human polar bears.

Perhaps ATO Virgil "Daddy" Beasley shouldn't be such a gentleman. Leaving the Good Samaritan hospital after a visit to a friend, our Mr. Beasley gallantly retrieved a little boy's hat which had blown off. The lad was so grateful that the loving sound of "Daddy" followed Virgil on his homeward way. O, happy young man!

Kappa Dot Babbit, not satisfied with being a prexy herself, associates only with the same animal species. Lambda Chi George Martin is the fourth in a series of fraternity heads who have courted her.

Why don't things like this happen?—why doesn't it rain at night instead of between classes... why doesn't P. P. Davis lose some of his dignity all of the time and enjoy life as he does when he loses all of his dignity some of the time... why doesn't money grow on trees... why don't monkeys drink pineapple juice—or do they... why don't letter men eat Wheaties since it's the food for athletes... why doesn't the army change the color of its uniforms... why don't lads and lassies give their backbones a rest and try standing up straight... why don't we wear bathing suits to hot dances on spring nights... why don't we have a swimming pool... why can't wise guys keep quiet when non-studiers want to study in psychology labs... why won't Who's Who-ey write itself?

Four Years Ago In The Kernel The Wildcat baseball team embarked for Starksville, Miss., where it was to engage Mississippi State in a two game series. This trip marked the first journey taken by the newly organized team.

A newcomer to varsity football ranks was being closely watched by coaches and spectators during the practice game between the "Blues" and "Whites." The new player named Bert Johnson, turned in many nice gains for the "White" team.

Doug Parrish, captain of the Wildcat track team, was slated to participate in his usual seven events in the Kentucky-Vandy meet to be held on the following Saturday. Parrish was entered in the dashes, hurdles, high and broad jumps and the pole vault.

SuKy sponsored an informal dance with Andy Anderson and his orchestra furnishing the music.

Another juicy little example of journalistic hypocrisy is the exacting deletion of some of our everyday words from the pages of the country's newspapers. It is this policy that makes it practically impossible to mention in any paper but the more flagrant tabloids such a common word as s—x, which isn't exactly unknown. Now, although we are constantly surrounded by and aware of the three letter word, see it in every movie we attend, are submerged in it in every book we read, and are little more than a product of the thing ourselves, we are not permitted to read the word in any self-respecting layout, although the gossip columns go a long way toward revealing the true nature of the thing.

The unfortunate writer also has orders not to refer to any drink as w—y. Well, this one is a beverage, inebriative, spelled with seven letters. We are told by the W.C.T.U. that it is the root of all evil, and the doorway to h—l, but which certain fellows whom we know tell us is the root of all pleasure and the doorway to a good time. Mae West Flicker Heads Theater Bill

College Night At Strand Also To Have Davis-Muni Picture

"Every Day's A Holiday," starring Mae West, with Edmund Lowe, Charles Butterworth, Charles Winninger, and Louis Armstrong, will be the main attraction at tonight's College Night program at the Strand theater.

Typically Mae Westian, the film is in the Gay Ninety era. Playing a duel role—blonde, then brunette—Mae captures the mood of the old Brooklyn in one of her best cinema strips.

In "Borderland," the night's second drawing card, Betty Davis and Paul Muni, Academy Award winners, carry the burden of the drama with assistance from Eugent Pallette.

The audience is invited to supply its own sound effects for the final chapter of the old time silent mystery thriller, "The Mask," starring Jack Holt. Other short features are a band short, "Rhythm Saves the Day," and the inevitable cartoon in technicolor titled "Dancing Bear."

In the case that you are able to find the coupon which is supposed to be planted somewhere in today's sheet, you will be admitted to the Strand for the matinee tariff of 16 cents. One coupon will suffice for two students until the deadline at 8 o'clock.

Geology Students Will Leave Today For Field Study

Students in the department of geology will leave for Princeton, Ky., today.

The trip is being made in order to study formations exposed in Walche's Cut on the Illinois Central Railroad near Princeton. They will make a special study of faulting and exposed formations, some of which are oil producers in the Owensboro field. Dr. McFarlan and Paul Averitt, of the department, are in charge of the trip.

PROGRAM IS PLANNED

A program of singing and games will be featured at the next regular meeting of the University German club which will be held at 7:30 p. m., Monday, April 11, in the Woman's building. Refreshments will be served.

Sigma Pi Sigma Will Initiate Five

Lambda chapter of Sigma Pi Sigma, national honorary physics society, will initiate five persons at a special meeting at 4:30 p. m. today in Pence hall.

Two graduate students, Miss Kathern Montgomery, Vine Grove, and Carl Clinton Sartan, Lexington, and three undergraduates, James Clayton Anderson, Lexington; John Frederick Johnson, Wilmington, Del.; and Frank Joseph Lambert, Jr., Schenectady, N. Y., are those to be initiated.

A banquet will be given at 6:30 o'clock at Wellington Arms in honor of the new members. Dr. J. G. Black, head of the physics department at Morehead State Teachers College and a charter member of the Lambda chapter, will be the guest speaker on the program.

'K' CLUB FORMED BY LETTERMEN

Garland Elected President; Thompson, Brown, Head, Linden Hold Offices

At a meeting of 30 varsity lettermen held Monday night in the recreation room of Bradley hall, the initial step in the organization of a "K" Club, the first in the history of the University was completed.

Officers chosen by the new group were Larry Garland, Lexington, president; Homer Thompson, Jeffersonville, Ind., vice-president; Harry Brown, Paint Lick, secretary; Elmo Head, Bryan Station, treasurer, and Luke Linden, Blue Diamond, sergeant-at-arms. Garland, Brown and Linden are members of the football squad, while Thompson and Head are basketball letter winners.

Membership to the new organization is open only to athletes who have earned letter awards in one of the University's major sports—football, basketball, baseball and track. As baseball has been absent from the athletic list for a number of years, no letterman was present.

At the club's next meeting, after the spring holidays, a constitution and bylaws will be passed on after being submitted by a committee to be selected by the president. The club was founded at the suggestion of Athletic Director Bernie Shively on the basis of similar organizations at all larger schools. The purpose of the club will be the fostering of better sentiment among the athletes, to increase their standing on the campus in lines other than athletics and to work for their general interest.

Graduate Student Passes Examination

David Fritzlan One Of 23 That Makes Grade On Foreign Service Quiz

David Fritzlan, Wilmore, a graduate student and assistant in the political science department last year, was notified recently that he was one of the 23 persons who passed the Foreign Service examination out of the more than 500 candidates who took the test last September.

Born in India, the son of a missionary, Fritzlan received his primary and secondary education in that country. He attended the University for two years, during which he received his master's degree. Fritzlan now holds a graduate scholarship at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Medford, Mass.

He is now awaiting appointment as vice counsel, after which he will be sent to a post abroad.

SABER SLINGERS TRAVEL TO MEET CINCINNATI SATURDAY

Much Improved Fencing Team Will Engage Powerful U. C. Foil Squad

Improving with every match but still looking for their first win of the season, the Wildcat fencing team will cross swords with the University of Cincinnati Saturday in the Queen city, for the fourth Kentucky start of the campaign.

The strength of the Bearcat swordsmen is not known but the school has sponsored intercollegiate fencing for some years and as this is the first year that Kentucky has ever sported a foil and saber team in collegiate circles, the Ohio team should hold some advantage in experience. The greatly improved showing of the Cats in each of their meets should offset some of their opponents' advantages.

In the first attempt of a Cat team in intercollegiate fencing wars, the Blues fell victims to the powerful University of Illinois lancers by 17-1. Radically improved, the second start was dropped by 12-6 at the blades of the undefeated North Carolina Tarheels.

The third setback was suffered last Saturday afternoon when Vanderbilt out-roughed the Blues to win by 6-3 in foil bouts. In the matter of touches the Commodores' advantage was not so acute, as the count was 35-32.

Following the Cincinnati invasion, only one other meet remains on tap for the year. A return match with Vanderbilt, slated for April 23 will curtail the season. The match with the Commodores will mark the first intercollegiate fencing bouts ever held on the campus.

Members of the squad who will make the Cincinnati trip are: foil team, Scott D. Breckinridge, Jr., Virgil K. Beasley and W. S. Riley; saber team, Harold Riley, Chester Robbins and Stanley Hayes.

contests. The semifinals in the team debates will be announced at this time. Gov. A. B. Chandler is expected to speak at the dinner.

Semifinal debates are scheduled for Monday afternoon and the final debate will be held Monday evening in Memorial hall. The University band under the direction of John Lewis will play before the debate.

High schools having forensic teams in the tournament are: Ashland, Beaver Dam, Carrollton, Corbin, Danville, Highlands (P. Thomas, Campbell County, Memorial Consolidated (Hardyville), Harrodsburg, Hazard, Heath, LaCenter, Henry Clay (Lexington), St. Xavier (Louisville), Mayslick, Morgantown, Pikeville, Madison, Shepherdsville, Somerset, and Wayland.

Judges for the speech tournament will be members of the faculty of the University and other Kentucky colleges. Some of the judges selected from the University are Dr. L. L. Dantzer, Gerald Langford, W. R. Sutherland, Lawrence Yates, George White Fithian, Mrs. George R. Smith, of the English department; Rodman Sullivan of the economics department; Dr. Jesse E. Adams, head of the education department; and Prof. L. J. Horlacher, assistant dean of the College of Agriculture.

Divot Diggers To Open Year With Michigan

The University golf team will open its season at 1 p. m. Saturday afternoon at the Ashland Golf when the Wildcats tee-off against the University of Michigan links team in the first start of the year for both squads.

Selection of the performers who will represent the Blues in the opening match was decided Wednesday when the final qualifying scores were posted by the candidates. Bill Adams, who came through with a 157, the lowest score for the 36 holes, will hold down the

Diamond Practice Will Begin Soon

An official call for baseball team aspirants will be issued immediately after completion of the spring football drills, according to a statement made yesterday by diamond coach Frank Mosely. The grid practices are expected to be terminated Saturday.

After a lapse of several years baseball is again being added to the University athletic schedule. Believing that the national past-time is essential to a well-balanced sports program, baseball was one of the first additions to the list made by Athletic Director Shively when he was installed as sport's chief.

Although no scheduled contests will be played, a number of exhibition games are planned for the local diamond. Two contests with the Eastern State Teachers College have been tentatively billed for the latter part of April.

A steel backstop has been erected on the south side of the football field, west of the concrete stands. The field will be scraped and lined in time for the opening day of practice. Bleachers will be located on both sides of the backstop and behind it for the convenience of spectators.

Alumni Pledge Aid To Boosters Club

Plans for the organization of a boosters club were discussed by Athletic Director Bernie Shively and Head Football Coach Ab Kirwan Thursday night at a meeting of the Northern Kentucky alumni of the University held in Covington.

The meeting came as an outgrowth of interest shown by the grads who showed a desire for the formation of a boosters club following the purge of the athletic department.

Soon after the reorganization, Frank Dempsey, president of the Kentucky Club, the alumni organization, offered the aid of his group.

number one position. The remaining starters are: No. 2, Cyril Dannehold; No. 3, Bob Sweeney; No. 4, Bill Robinson; No. 5, John Gough; and No. 6, Ed Gough. The lack of indoor practicing facilities has handicapped the Wildcat golfers from rounding into playing form to a great extent.

Coach R. O. Courtright and his squad of nine Michigan men will reach Lexington early today. After their arrival the Northern team plans to practice over the local course. Members of the invading team are: Captain Al Karpinski, Bill Barclay, Billy Warren, Bill Yearnd, Bob Palmer, Lynn Riess, James Loar, Fred Schwarze and Tom Tussing.

Because of a foot injury, Bobby Thaxton, captain of the Wildcat divot-diggers, will be unable to participate in the matches. This will be the first time the two schools have ever met on the golf course, although they have collided in other sports. This will be the first of eight meets for the Wolverines, who are making their annual Southern tour.

The next match scheduled for the Cats is with the University of Cincinnati to be played here on April 19.

VARSITY SQUAD BATTLES FOR NET POSTS

Competition for team positions on the University tennis squad began last week on the Rose street courts with 12 men out for spots on the net outfit. The first round matches have already been played and the remaining round contests will get underway this week-end.

Prof. Downing, mentor of the netters, has arranged a schedule which allows each man a chance on the starting six. The members that are placed in the lower brackets will continue to advance so long as they win over a top seeded contender. He arranged the tentative positions in regard to his opinion of the boys and the ability they displayed in the practice sessions, both in the gym annex and the outdoor workouts.

James Waddington, Wildcat net-baller, has joined up with the netmen and in his first round match triumphed over Dick Robinson which stamps him as a likely contender for a position.

According to the first round results, the first 12 men are lined up thus: Bob Evans, Phil Englehardt, Dave Ragland, George May, Herbert Holman, Walter Botts, "Bubby" Boone, Russel Cooley, Ruel Foster, J. C. Bristow, James Waddington, and Dick Robinson.

Matches that have been played:

First Round

Englehardt defeated Ragland for No. 2 position.

May defeated Botts for No. 4 position.

Holman defeated Boone for No. 6 position.

Cooley defeated Foster for No. 8 position.

Bristow held No. 10 position.

Waddington defeated Robinson for No. 11 position.

Ragland defeated May for No. 3 position.

Holman defeated Botts for No. 5 position.

IN RADIO, TOO, THEY DISCUSS THIS SUBJECT:

BETTY MIDDLETON ASKS RAY WINTERS, THE ANNOUNCER:

"RAY, ARE CAMELS REALLY SO DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CIGARETTES?"

WHEN RAY WINTERS SIGNED OFF (above) he had a long, hard day behind him. Ray has thought a lot about which cigarette best fits in with the nerve-and-energy-consuming work he does. "Camels are different from other cigarettes," is his verdict. "In the ten years I've been enjoying them, I've never known Camels to make my throat feel scratchy, my nerves ragged. That says mildness, doesn't it? There are so many ways in which Camels agree with me!"

NO TWO WAYS ABOUT IT, BETTY. I'M REHEARSING OR ON THE AIR FOR 40 HOURS A WEEK. IT'S TOUGH ON MY NERVES, DIGESTION, AND ESPECIALLY MY THROAT. MY CIGARETTE MUST AGREE WITH ME. AND CAMELS DO—in every way.

And many millions of other smokers find what they want in Camels, too.

MORE and more experienced smokers are concluding: "Camel is the cigarette that agrees with me." If you are not now smoking Camels, try them. Look for the difference between Camels and other cigarettes. Find out what it means to enjoy Camel's costlier tobaccos.

HE'S AFTER A "STRIKE"! Off duty, smoking is one of Ray Winters' pastimes. He's good! "And when I'm tired," Ray says, "I get a 'lift' with a Camel—a feeling of renewed energy."

PEOPLE DO APPRECIATE THE COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN CAMELS

THEY ARE THE LARGEST-SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA

Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic

"The majority of tobacco growers favor Camels because we know what choice tobacco goes into them,"

TOBACCO PLANTERS REPORT

"The favorite with most men who grow tobacco," is what Vault Snowden, veteran planter, calls Camels. "Camel doesn't buy just any tobacco—they get the best. The Camel buyer bought all the choice grade tobacco of my last crop. I've been a steady Camel smoker myself for 19 years."

B. F. Bivins, another experienced tobacco grower, knows what cigarette pays more for the choice leaf tobacco. "The Camel people sure do get the best grades," he says. "Take my own crop last year. Camel bought the best lots. And other planters will tell you the same. You bet, I smoke Camels."

He's been growing tobacco for 10 years. "I'm in a position to know a lot about the quality of the tobacco that goes into various cigarettes," James Graves, another well-known planter, says. "Most of the growers around here—myself included—sold the best leaf tobacco of their last crop to Camels. I know tobacco so I smoke Camels."
